

Analyst - Economist Economic and Cost Benefit Analysis Expert

Morrison Low has a reputation for applying outstanding problem solving techniques in complex environments across a range of industry sectors including transport, health, agriculture, environment and government. We provide advice to clients on economic and financial feasibility, business strategy, operation efficiency and regulation.

We are currently seeking an experienced consultant who is degree qualified in economics, to work on a range of projects involving cost benefit analysis, economic impact analysis, funding submissions, feasibility studies, service reviews and economic development.

The position would suit a candidate with a minimum of 2 – 3 years PQE with the required technical skills in cost benefit and economic impact analysis and/or financial analysis but who can work adaptably across a range of industries and projects requiring high level quantitative and qualitative research and analysis.

You must be a natural team player with strong conceptual and analytical thinking. Well developed time management skills along with exceptional report writing skills are a prerequisite. Project management experience would be ideal.

An understanding of local and state government along with experience in the transport and infrastructure markets within Australia would be optimal, in particular, the nature and operation of the freight and logistics markets.

You will work for a leading management consulting firm specialising in the local, state and central government sectors in Australia and New Zealand and focus on developing innovative solutions for clients covering a range of business areas.

The successful applicant will be based in Sydney and have a high degree of flexibility to work and travel within Australia and New Zealand.

The role is full time. Remuneration will be negotiated based on the successful candidate's experience, background and fit within our current business.

Please apply for this position by sending your CV and cover letter explaining why you are the best candidate for this position to the Practice Manager – s.parkinson@morrisonlow.com
