

Senior Infrastructure and Asset Management Consultant

For over eighteen years, Morrison Low has consulted to local, central and state government and the financial services sector and achieved some exceptional results. Now, many industries rely on our expertise. We are an Australasian management consulting firm, and have offices strategically located in Sydney, Auckland and Wellington. We are a values-driven business with a supportive team who thrive on delivering exceptional results across all facets of our client's businesses.

With continued growth and success, we are now searching for a senior consultant with strong infrastructure, asset management and civil engineering experience to add skill and capability to our highly experienced team. You will be based in our Sydney office (within walking distance of Central Station).

To be considered for this exciting opportunity you will be degree qualified in civil engineering or other appropriate qualifications with a minimum of fifteen years senior consulting experience in diverse roles associated with local and state government provided services, in particular; infrastructure operations, asset management and planning.

You will bring with you a strong customer focus, problem solving skills, strategic, conceptual and analytical thinking along with the ability to work both autonomously and within a team environment.

Ultimately you are a self-starter with outstanding sales and client relationship-building skills, coupled with a strong history of understanding client requirements and delivering within their budgets. Having solid report writing, time management and organisational skills, along with stakeholder engagement are prerequisites.

You will have strong existing networks and client base, along with strong relationships across the relevant government agencies, being recognised within the sector for your capability and achievements.

We take pride in the fact that we provide a workplace that encourages growth, flexibility and creativity, as well as a company culture that champions inclusion, diversity and overall employee well-being.

Flexibility to travel within Australia and to New Zealand is also required.

In return we offer a competitive salary, professional development and the opportunity to work within a supportive, friendly team of professionals in modern, open plan offices.

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been waiting for, please apply by sending your CV and cover letter explaining why you are the best candidate for the role to the Practice Manager s.parkinson@morrisonlow.com

Please note all applicants must have the legal right to work in Australia.
