

Central Government Manager

- Looking for your next challenge?
- Ten+ years' experience in providing advice to the public sector?
- Keen to be part of a dynamic, fast-paced, flexible organisation committed to making a difference?

About us / Ko wai mātou

Morrison Low is an Australasian management consulting firm. We have offices in Wellington, Auckland and Sydney. For over twenty years we have consulted to the public sector and achieved some exceptional results.

Our clients come to us for trusted advice on a wide range of issues and we are seen as sector experts in providing strategic infrastructure, service delivery and procurement advice. We are looking for an experienced consultant to lead the next phase of growing our central government practice into new service lines.

We are a values-driven business with a supportive team who thrive on delivering exceptional results across all facets of our clients' businesses.

Our people are flexible, hardworking and committed. We invest in our people. We take pride in the fact that we are a workplace that encourages growth, flexibility and creativity, as well as a company culture that champions inclusion, diversity and overall employee wellbeing.

You can find out more about us at www.morrisonlow.com.

The opportunity / Te whiwhinga mahi

The Central Government Manager will lead this practice area for Morrison Low. Working closely with other consultants and leaders from across the business, you will be involved in the development of many challenging and rewarding projects that will genuinely make a difference.

You will be accountable for the growth of the business, building the team and all aspects of project delivery on government projects.

About you / ko wai koe

Our Central Government Manager will have experience in consulting to government, excellent relationship, communication and networking skills. You will also have a track record of problem solving and formulating high quality advice in your area of expertise.

To be successful in this role, you will:

- be degree qualified with at least ten years' experience in consulting to the government sector
- understand the role of government, regulators and the policy process
- be confident working with our clients to identify their needs and deliverables

- be able to simultaneously work and engage with a wide range of clients on a variety of projects
- have superior written communication skills, and have experience delivering accurate and engaging written and visual content that is tailored to the audience, along with confidence in presenting these ideas to senior officials and Ministers
- be comfortable self-managing your work, juggling competing demands and deadlines, prioritising work efficiently with little direct supervision
- enjoy networking, meeting new people and building relationships
- want to grow your career.

The position is Wellington-based but will involve work on projects for clients in a range of locations and potential associated domestic travel. Our projects are usually team-based, both short and long term, and may involve both working in-house with our clients and from our offices.

Remuneration will be negotiated based on the successful candidate's experience, background and fit with in our current business.

Applications close/ Ra Katinga: 30 October 2020 at 5pm

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been waiting for, please apply by sending your CV and cover letter explaining why you are the best candidate for this position to the Practice Manager - s.parkinson@morrisonlow.com.

Please note, all applicants must have the legal right to work in New Zealand.