

Senior Consultant - Business Improvement, Corporate Strategy and Governance

For over twenty years, Morrison Low has consulted to local and state government across Australia and New Zealand achieving sustained credibility with some exceptional results, now councils and government agencies rely on our expertise, knowledge and experience. We are an Australasian management consulting firm, and have offices strategically located in Sydney, Auckland and Wellington. We are a values driven business with a supportive team that thrive on delivering exceptional results across all facets of our clients' businesses.

Morrison Low has a strong reputation for applying outstanding problem-solving techniques in complex environments. A significant part of our business is working with local government and government agencies developing strategies and operational excellence in the sustained servicing of their customers.

With continued growth and success, we are now seeking a senior management consultant for our Sydney office (a short walk from Central station), who is working in either business and process improvement, or corporate strategy and governance in local government, or currently advising local government in a contracting or consultancy role. You are reasonably senior, with respect of your peers, and are providing advice to senior management. This means you will probably be at a team leader or manager level or above. In either case, you will be looking for a challenge and a change of scenery. Ideally you are the sort of person who solves problems and builds enduring relationships. You will be trusted by technically minded people and decisionmakers, and will have the wisdom to know how to work effectively with both!

The variety of work is endless. You probably won't know what you will be working on in three months, but it won't matter, because you will be the sort of person to back yourself to be busy.

This year the team has worked on projects ranging from improving council sustainability, unpacking merged councils, service planning and delivery reviews, developing resourcing strategies, right through to writing business cases, and exploring best practice approaches to all aspects of council operations.

Morrison Low is a cool firm to work for, so check us out at www.morrisonlow.com/join-us/. We draw upon the huge wealth of knowledge and experience across our teams in Sydney, Wellington and Auckland.

We are here for the long-haul. We are owned by our staff, and we are growing. We want someone who has the drive to get involved and be part of our story.

We would expect a relevant degree qualification with professional accreditation.

You must be a natural team player with strong customer focus, conceptual and analytical thinking while having sound problem solving skills. Having solid report writing and time management skills are a prerequisite. Ultimately you are a self-starter with client relationship building skills, capacity to generate sales coupled with a strong history of delivery and desire to help grow our service offering.

Flexibility to travel within Australia and to New Zealand is required.

In return we offer a competitive salary, professional development, and the opportunity to work within a supportive, friendly team of professionals in modern, open plan offices.

We take pride in the fact that we have a workplace that encourages growth, flexibility and creativity.

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been waiting for, please apply by sending your CV and cover letter explaining why you are the best candidate for the role to the Practice Manager – s.parkinson@morrisonlow.com.

Please note all applicants must have the legal right to work in Australia and have local government experience.
