

Senior Consultant – Transport and Infrastructure

- Challenge yourself, work with the best, get results
- Explore innovative options to achieve optimum solutions
- Be part of a growing dynamic, flexible organisation committed to making a difference

About Us / Ko wai mātou

Morrison Low is an Australasian management consulting firm with offices in Auckland, Wellington, and Sydney. For more than twenty years we have consulted to local and central government and have a strong reputation for applying outstanding problem-solving techniques in complex environments.

We are a values-driven business with a supportive team who thrive on delivering exceptional results across all facets of our client's businesses. Our success is measured by building long term client relationships. We invest in our people who are committed, work well as part of a team, and enjoy a challenge.

With continued growth and success, we are seeking a senior consultant based in our Auckland office to work on projects for clients across New Zealand; and take a lead role in the transport and infrastructure areas.

You can find out more about us at www.morrisonlow.com

The Opportunity / Te whiwhinga mahi

We are seeking a senior consultant with relevant central and local government experience in the transport and infrastructure areas to support our Auckland and Wellington based teams. We are especially looking to strengthen our team with transportation expertise in the areas of public transport and funding.

With your industry knowledge and sound analysis and decision-making skills, you will have experience in identifying and addressing opportunities and challenges to support strategic planning and service delivery across our clients' networks. Your knowledge of land transport strategic priorities will enable you to provide reliable and relevant advice in this area.

We operate at an advisory level, on both short- and long-term projects, supporting our clients to translate their priorities into funded outcomes that benefit their communities.

You will work closely with other consultants and leaders across our business as part of a team that aims to help clients achieve their potential, delivering tangible results and outcomes.

About You / Ko wai koe

You are a team player, have initiative, are self-motivated and can quickly assimilate new learnings. You will have developed your base skills, have taken leadership of projects, and developed relationships with clients. You are now seeking to move to the next level in your career.

You enjoy working with people from a range of backgrounds and professional disciplines and have a strong client focus which builds and maintains strong relationships.

To be successful in this role, you will:

- Have a relevant degree or tertiary education with approximately 10 years' relevant experience
- Have experience working within the public sector and / or a consultancy environment with a focus on transportation
- Be an excellent listener who can become a trusted advisor
- Have superior written communication skills, and experience delivering accurate and engaging written and visual content that is tailored to the audience
- Be comfortable self-managing your work, juggling competing demands and deadlines, and prioritising work efficiently
- Enjoy networking, meeting new people and building relationships
- Have confidence presenting ideas to clients
- Want to learn new skills and grow your career
- Have flexibility to travel.

Remuneration will be negotiated based on the successful candidate's experience, background and fit within our current business. For the right person, there are also opportunities to both have a shareholding and take a leadership role within the company.

If this sounds like the opportunity you have been waiting for, please apply now by sending your CV and a cover letter outlining your fit for this position.

Please note all applicants must have the legal right to work in New Zealand.

No agencies please.